
CATCH

book #3 in the Guarded Series

by

Darcie J. Gudger

Genre: Young Adult

Word Count: 63K

When Kisrie Kelley's lifelong nemesis Wendy Wetz crashes the Wyoming wilderness trip arranged exclusively for Kisrie and her color guard friends, it's all Kisrie can do to keep her cool.

Okay, so the "trip" is actually punishment for when the girls inadvertently foiled a police sting and caused a sex trafficking ring to get away. They're supposed to learn to work together and make wise decisions, but is that even possible with troublemaking Wendy, who isn't even a member of the guard, tagging along?

What Kisrie doesn't know is that Wendy is purposely drawing the man who kidnapped her toward herself to protect Kisrie's younger sister. She also doesn't know the serious PTSD Wendy's fighting through each grueling step of the trip. Is there any chance a girl like her can be redeemed, or will the former Queen of Mean revert to her old ways for good?

Pushed to their limits in the unforgiving wilderness, Kisrie and Wendy must face their fears. But what if the biggest fear is secretly hunting Wendy? If Kisrie happens to be in the way, well, that's life . . . or death.

Endorsements: Kimberly Woodhouse, Becca Whitham, Kayla Woodhouse

Darcie J. Gudger has fifteen years of experience as a competitive color guard director. She lives near Casper, WY, with her husband, son, dog, and a cat called Blob. If not at her desk, she's likely to be paddling the river in her kayak, hiking, or stalking moose, bison, or antelope. Darcie has a B.A. in psychology from Houghton College in NY and a M.A. in special education from the University of Colorado, Denver.

darciejoygudger@gmail.com / djgudger.com