FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Devotional Brings Hope To Discouraged First Responders Everywhere

Colorado Springs, CO, June 24, 2022 –Tez Brooks announces the release of his latest book, Debriefing: Meditations of Hope for Those Who Protect and Serve.

First Responders have one of the nation's highest divorce, trauma, and suicide rates. With society watching their every move, it's easy to forget God's bigger purpose for them. Where do they go to refresh and refocus?

Multiple award-winning author Tez Brooks is excited to announce a gift book that will bring hope to public servants everywhere. The official launch date for "Debriefing is August 2, 2022, and Brooks believes Debriefing will encourage those who serve as law enforcement, firefighters, correctional officers, 9-1-1 operators, EMS personnel, and more.

Available through Amazon and IngramSpark (in paperback and eBook) this self-published, short read contains twenty real-life stories from everyday experiences these individuals face on the job. Each story is linked to scripture and practical applications, helping readers see God at work as they place their hearts and lives on the line each day.

New York Times bestselling author Jerry B. Jenkins says, "I know Debriefing will prove to be a treasure to first responders and their families. What a gift to men and women who serve in one of the most challenging careers."

While raising two kids alone, Tez was a former law enforcement officer and police chaplain. He is now a full-time missionary journalist, filmmaker, and international speaker living in Colorado Springs where he coaches aspiring writers.

In 2020, his book, The Single Dad Detour, won Book of the Decade with Serious Writer Academy. Brooks has appeared in Guideposts, Power for Living, The Upper Room, CBN.com, Clubhouse, Focus on the Family, Cru.org, and more. His editorials are featured regularly on Jesusfilm.org and seen by over 30k readers each month. You can learn more and obtain a press kit at TezBrooks.com.
