

Name: Beatrice Bruno

One sentence that describes me and my writing: I am one who still has challenges believing God has actually called me to write!

Brief bio: I am a US Army Veteran and former (but always and forever) Drill Sergeant. I am a widow of six years and traveler. I have been serving in ministry for over 30 years and love the Lord and His people. (And, yes, there is a difference between loving and liking His people. Just saying.) I love writing because it is very cathartic. I am almost starting everything over after taking a hiatus after my husband passed. I am thankful that God is patient. I am a Speaker/Preacher and known as The Drill Sergeant of Life.

Why I write: I have many stories to tell. God called me to writing in 1994 but still have much, very much to learn about writing and marketing that writing.
