Name: Anne Foley Rauth writes devotionals and to encourage others to be the hands and feet of Jesus.

One sentence that describes me and my writing:

Brief bio:

Anne has been writing for only a few years for Christian publications but is already being featured in Guideposts, Guideposts' Angels on Earth, and Chicken Soup for the Soul: Just Say Yes. , along with other publications. Well-seasoned in the fields of marketing, promotion, and advertising, she worked in the Finance, Advertising and Hallmark Hall of Fame divisions of Hallmark Cards, as well as other Fortune 500 companies, such as H&R Block, directing national promotions and sponsorships. Anne and her husband have also recently opened an Air BnB that will be used for quilting and writing retreats in the peaceful countryside around the Quilting capital of the world (<https://airbnb.com/h/-quilt-retreat-oasis>). She's also the mom of three boys, all Eagle Scouts.

Anne is a firm believer in building relationships, both in person and through social media outlets like LinkedIn and Facebook.
