

Save as a ONE PAGE Word doc or PDF

Name: Carol Camargo

One sentence that describes me and my writing:

Personal experiences of recovery, with a diagnosis of bipolar disorder. (I am doing very well now and have not been hospitalized in years.)

Brief bio:

Recovery, spiritual development and self discovery and my most important occupations. I have a bipolar disorder, but have been well doing well for years. I was a Learning Disability Tutor when I was working, and I'm now the Assistant Administrator for a ministry called "Lite-Shine Int'l Ministries". It is a volunteer position. I was first diagnosed as having a mental illness at 21. For many years I averaged being hospitalized twice a year. Now it has been 15 years since I have been hospitalized.

Why I write:

I write:

Fiction: ___short stories ___books

Genres:

Nonfiction: ___articles Xpersonal experience stories ___devotions Xbooks

Genres:

Other: Xpoetry Xscripts

My audience ___Christians Xgeneral public ___women ___men ___teens ___children

I'm currently working on: A memoir on my recovery from bipolar disorder. A book that will soon be in print and on audiobook is called "Unraveling Voices", and is a conversation I had with Jesus when I was very sick. I was furious with Jesus, and He always answered me lovingly. I'm marking it for the general public, (New Agers, etc.) I think many can connect to the anger and confusion. I was not in a good space. Jesus answers so lovingly and insightfully, that I'm hoping it can lead others to Christ.

My greatest joy and/or struggle in writing is: Remembering difficult memories and working through feelings.

I'd like to meet writers who: Have experience with mental health.

___I belong to a writers' group that is open to new members.

___I would like to find a writers' group.

Email Address: carolwcamargo@yahoo.com

Website:

Blog:

City & State (or Country):

XI'm not yet published ___I've been published in periodicals