Name: Yvonne Anzolone

One sentence that describes me and my writing:

I've discovered that I can write, create art and play the piano again after I retired from the real estate. I write about my immigrant family living in New York and my experiences growing up and working here.

Brief bio:

I had an unusual upbringing and was a troubled teenager. By the time I came to Christ, I needed a lot of healing. I have come back to my first love and my second childhood is now in full swing. The Lord gave me three Scriptures to keep me going. Psalm 37:4, Matthew 6:33 and Romans 12:2.

I love to write, draw and play piano. I watch too many old movies and reruns but I love the music. I love dancing so God found gave me an African (Nigerian) church family where I can dance and worship Him. Hallelujah!

Why I write: I love words, reading, doing the Jumble, playing Scrabble and that's how it began.

I write:

Fiction:  short stories  books

Genres:

Nonfiction:  articles  personal experience stories  devotions  books

Genres:

Other:  poetry  scripts

My audience  Christians  general public  women  men  teens  children

I'm currently working on: Two Novels about overcoming generational sin

My greatest joy and/or struggle in writing is: Focusing and planning

I'd like to meet writers who: have a good sense of humor

I belong to a writers' group that is open to new members.

I would like to find a writers' group.
