

Article Checklist

1. Single focus: One point, stated near the beginning, of what the article is about

Stay on the tracks!

Story promise (for personal experience): direction of the narrative

2. Make sure all your development supports your focus

Your “stuff”: research, Bible verses, quotes from books, magazines, websites, etc.

3. Application: How is it relevant to the reader?

4. Satisfying conclusion: What should the reader do with your information?

5. Mechanics (grammar, spelling, punctuation, etc.)

6. Good fit to publication

Writer’s guidelines
Theme list
Study publication
Distinctives