

CCWC 2016 Course Outline – 6B Writing from a Biblical World-View, Reaching the Non-Believer / Beth Weikel

Seeing our world with discernment:

Things happen around us daily that need interpretation.

How does our relationship with God help us cope?

What does the Bible say about living in this world?

Feeling the burden for others:

Why we write and how that's connected to others.

What spiritual gifts have we been given that need expression?

What does the Bible say about reaching out with truth?

Doing battle in our calling:

What equips us to face resistance?

Where is the battle?

What does the Bible say about how to keep going in a purposeful direction?

by His design examples: (the mindset...the work...the blessing)

God's call in the midst of an ongoing crisis- the message in the mess

Caring about others and wanting them to find faith- love poured out and overflowing

Clinging to what we know and put our hope in- solid foundations

Accepting opportunities- Divinely "compelled" into unfamiliar territory

Giving glory for grace exercised in difficult places- seeing evidence of God's hand in ours

"The Lord is my strength and song, and He has become my salvation. This is my God and I will praise Him, my father's God and I will extol Him" Exodus 15:2.
