

Personal faith Inventory

Some people find it hard to talk about their personal faith journey. It could be that you have never been asked, or it could be that you've not taken the time to think it through. You simply know that you follow Jesus.

This questionnaire can help you grow comfortable in talking about your faith, and can also be used to help small group members get to know one another.

1. My first recollection of being in church was

2. The closest I have felt to God in my life was

3. The time I have felt the greatest doubt or distance from God was

4. If I could thank God for just one incident in my life it would be _____ and why?

5. If I could thank God for just one person in my faith journey it would be _____ and why?

6. If I could name a turning point in my life for my relationship with God it would be _____ and why?

7. If I had to tell someone why I am a Christian I would have to say