Name: Sue Nielsen

One sentence that describes me and my writing:

I serve in an intercultural church of former refugees whose stories need to be written.

Brief bio: I have spent over 40 years working cross-culturally in a North American setting (20 years with First Nations people and 20 years in a multicultural setting). Seven years ago, we opened Naomi House, which serves and houses former refugees and refugee claimants. I homeschooled our six children for 25 years but now I feel the time has come for me to focus on writing the stories of inspiring people whose lives bear testimony to our amazing God.

Why I write: To encourage Christians to befriend newcomers and thus grow in their spiritual walk

I write:

Fiction: ___short stories ___books

Genres:

Nonfiction: ___articles _x_personal experience stories ___x_devotions ___books

Genres:

Other: ___poetry ___scripts

My audience ___x_Christians ___general public _x_women ___men ___teens ___children

I'm currently working on: Making a list of people whose stories I'd like to write, plus sub topics such as recipes and natural healing remedies, parenting and relationships, etc

My greatest joy and/or struggle in writing is: Stepping down from other commitments as a missionary and pastor's wife to be able to find time to write.

I'd like to meet writers who: have worked cross-culturally and have similar writing interests

___I belong to a writers' group that is open to new members.

X___I would like to find a writers' group.
