Name: Ruth P. Harbour

One sentence that describes me and my writing:

I want to point people to Christ in my writing, and in all I do.

Brief bio: Wife of Mark for forty-four years! Mother of five children on four continents, and proud grandmother of fifteen grandbabies! Since we have spent forty-one years Taiwan as church planters, there is so much I want to share concerning the people we have known here. But right now I am working hard on my first novel—ON THE LOOKOUT. It is biblical fiction, speculative, and issues oriented. Writing it has been an adventure and growing process, and I can't wait to get it published, before the Beast actually mandates that people take the mark!

Why I write: because there is just so much to communicate that needs to be passed on!

I write:

Fiction:  short stories  books

Genres:

Nonfiction:  articles  personal experience stories  devotions  books

Genres:

Other:  poetry  scripts

My audience  Christians  general public  women  men  teens  children

I'm currently working on: ON THE LOOKOUT, and TAIWAN SAGAS

My greatest joy and/or struggle in writing is: My greatest joy is experiencing the Father's ideas and guidance. My greatest struggle is doing the research and applying it.

I'd like to meet writers who: have published Bible studies, and written fiction. I am also interested in writing for children.

I would love to start a writers' group here in Taiwan.

I belong to a writers' group that is open to new members.

I would like to find a writers' group.
