

Colorado Christian Writers Conference

August 26-28, 2021

24th year!

Going Virtual

Whether you write fiction or nonfiction, for children or adults, CCWC will equip you to write about a God who is real, who is reachable, and who changes lives.

- ◆ Be inspired in our general sessions to “write His answer.”
- ◆ Sharpen your writing and marketing skills from your choice of 7 continuing sessions plus 42 workshops.
- ◆ Choose from pre-conference webinars and zoom meetings to prepare to make the most of the conference.
- ◆ Learn from 67 faculty members—many new to CCWC!
- ◆ Pitch your idea to agents and editors.
- ◆ Form deep friendships with others who share your passion for words and the Lord.
- ◆ Participate in Friday’s Authors’ Night.

I have come to a half dozen CCWC conferences over the years and I've watched my writing opportunities grow in ways I never imagined.

But more importantly, I've seen my writing deepen.
