TEENS WRITE

Saturday, May 14, 2022

Virtual

- 8:00 — 9:15 Teens welcome to attend keynote with Liz Curtis Higgs 9:30 — 10:00 Welcome to Teens Write with Darcie Gudger
10:00 — 10:40 Strong Starts and Satisfying Endings with Tim Shoemaker

In our world of shrinking attention spans, what do we need to do in our fiction to grab our reader—and not let him go? We'll look at secrets to great openings and endings—and how to create yours.

- 10:45 – 11:25 Jesus Wants You to Paddle with Jesse Florea
Becoming a writer takes more than God-given ability; it takes work. You have to learn the rules, discover your voice, dig into your passions and write from your strengths. This class will look at tried-and-true tips to grow as a writer.

- 11:30 – 11:45 Morning wrap-up with Darcie
12:00 – 12:30 LUNCH – Teens welcome to attend one or more editor/agent round tables
12:30 – 3:15 Powerful Point of View & SHOW vs. TELL with Holly DeHerrera

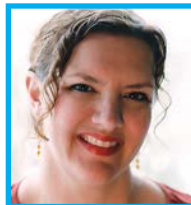

- Write using the tool of point of view to connect character description to storytelling in a powerful way!
- Learn how to show versus tell your story.

- 3:15 – 3:30 Wrap-up with Darcie
3:30 – 4:30 Teens welcome to attend Tim's closing keynote
