A Message from the Director

Marlene Bagnull Litt.D

Marlene is the author of 5 books, including Write His Answer: A Bible Study for Christian Writers in print for 25 years, and the compiler/editor of 4 other books. She also has made over 1,000 sales to Christian periodicals. Marlene gives Write His Answer Seminars around the nation, teaches At-Home Writing Workshops, freelance edits, and helps Christians publish affordably and professionally through Ampelos Press. She has directed the Colorado Christian Writers Conference since 1997 and the Greater Philly Christian Writers Conference, which she founded, since 1983.

For such a time as this God is raising up an army of Christians to “write His answer” to the critical needs facing our nation and world. In the midst of growing hostility to Christ, we must not be silent. Whether you write fiction or nonfiction, for children or adults, CCWC will equip you to write about a God who is real, who is reachable, and who changes lives.

♦ Be inspired in our general sessions to “write His answer.”
♦ Sharpen your writing and marketing skills from your choice of 8 continuing sessions and 42 workshops or 3 clinics.
♦ Take advantage of our Wednesday afternoon early bird workshops. Only $55 for your choice of 3 workshops from the 15 offered. Coming a distance? Tuesday night lodging is available.
♦ Learn from 56 faculty members—many new to CCWC!
♦ Meet for 15 minutes with FOUR faculty members of your choice.
♦ Form deep friendships with others who share your passion for words and for the Lord.

Second Act: Storytelling that Inspires Change

D. J. Williams

Executive producer and author D. J.’s story of faith in the jungles of the Amazon, the bush of Africa, and the slums of the Far East will challenge you to seek God’s plan and purpose for your life. He will move you toward becoming a storyteller who inspires others to embrace the pursuit of social causes in a world desperately in need of the gospel.

God, Grant Me Patience

John Perrodin

What does it mean to wait on the Lord’s will—and timing? John waited more than a decade to land his most recent contract. He will help you explore whether or not God is giving you a glimpse through a door—or if you’re merely trying to force it open. How can you know God has called you to write?

Write His Answer Joyfully

Tracie Peterson

The hands-on Clinics help you need!

Each clinic is by application and meets during the six hour-long workshops.

Cost, in addition to a 3-day conference registration, is $65 on acceptance. Deadline for application is April 15. You will be notified whether or not you’ve been accepted by April 21. More information and applications on conference website.

Fiction Clinic with Tracie & Jim Peterson

Limit 10 participants

Tracie is a best-selling, award-winning author of over 100 published books. She received her first book contract in 1992. Jim is a historian.

Have you ever wondered what makes a novel a best-seller? Why has one book drawn you in, while another failed to get you to turn past the first chapter? A new style of workshop for the writer who is looking to figure out the ropes regarding writing quality fiction. Designed for both new and established writers. We’ll dissect a best-selling novel to write a best-selling novel.

Prerequisite: Each student will be required to read a best-selling novel assigned by the teachers prior to the conference. They will receive dissecting instructions to be ready to share in the discussion at the clinic. They will also need to furnish a synopsis and classmates and teachers can dissect their work and discuss it.

Nonfiction Book Clinic with Craig Bubbeck

Limit 8 participants

Craig is a professional editor and writer who has served for 20 years in the CBA retail industry as publishing director and in senior-level acquisitions editorial. He is directly responsible for the successful publication of more than 200 retail books, more than a dozen curriculum lines, and the authoring or ghostwriting of several books.

In this hands-on clinic, you will learn the essentials of a well-structured book built upon the foundation of a solid concept. The focus will be upon topically structured books, not narrative memoirs. (Writers wanting to transform their personal narratives into a topical form are welcome and could find this clinic useful.) You will also work on your book’s concept/focus, table of contents, and opening chapter to help ensure that your book can reach its intended audience with the message you wish to present.

Prerequisite: This clinic is open to all writers who are serious about writing a topical nonfiction book.

Speakers’ Clinic with Roy Hanschke

Limit 8 participants

Roy is a Christian radio personality and speaker who has coached beginning and seasoned speakers for over 17 years. He is also a 20-year (plus) veteran of Christian radio. His morning show is heard at AM91 KPOF and worldwide on streaming audio at www.AM91.org.

If you’ve been avoiding the challenge to begin the speaking part of your ministry or need to improve what you’re already doing, this is the clinic for you. Roy will help you discover your ministry focus, organize one of your talks to maximize time and effectiveness, present your talk with power and pizzazz, and market your message through radio. You’ll have an opportunity to test what you learn and receive helpful evaluation from Roy and your peers.

“New writers should absolutely go to writers conferences. The best two are Mount Hermon and the Colorado Christian Writers Conference.”

Continuing Sessions

1. The Chase (for novelists & screenwriters)

_With the DNA of a world traveler_, D. J. was born and raised in Hong Kong. He has ventured into the jungles of the Amazon, the bush of Africa, and the slums of the Far East. Currently based out of Los Angeles, D. J. continues to add to his producing and directing credits of more than 350 episodes of broadcast TV syndicated worldwide by developing new projects for television, film, and print. His latest novel, _Waking Lazarus_, is an epic global adventure filled with riveting characters and page-turning twists and turns.

Create a roadmap to chase your cause-driven novel in this interactive workshop that dives into the structure that moves novelists and screenwriters to write stories that make a difference in the world. D. J. will focus on: 1) Defining Passion, Shaping Habits, Harnessing Raw Ideas. 2) Developing Plot, Timelines for Research, Flexible Outlines. 3) Creating a World with Characters that are Believable. 4) Building Visual Chapters and Dialogue filled with Mystery & Suspense. 5) Going Beyond the Last Page. 2. You Can Indie Publish & Market Your Book

_Sarah is the Director of CSPA_, the Christian Small Publishers Association, the owner of Crest Publications, and the author of 7 books including the award-winning _Your Guide to Marketing Books in the Christian Marketplace_. She has also written numerous articles. A clinical social worker, Sarah stumbled into the world of publishing after her two self-help books were published by a small publisher. Sarah and her husband then collaborated on a set of board books for infants and toddlers. After much thought and research, they decided to indie publish. www.christianpublishers.net

Gain the knowledge and tools you need to publish and market your own book affordably. Topics will include: three things to do before you publish your book; preparing your manuscript; DIY publishing; obtaining book reviews; and marketing, the essential ingredient. www.marketingchristianbooks.wordpress.com

3. Writing Powerful Narrative Nonfiction

_Sherri Langton_ has worked over 25 years in Christian publishing. An award-winning freelance writer, her work has appeared in numerous publications and book collections including _Chicken Soup for the Soul_. She is the associate editor of _Bible Advocate_ and _Now What!_. Sherri is passionate about touching lives through writing and helping writers express themselves biblically and professionally.

Has someone urged you to _write your story_? Many writers do and send their story to a magazine only to have the editor reject it. What makes a story catch an editor’s eye? This class will guide you in writing powerful nonfiction for magazines, covering how story communicates biblical truth, where to find ideas, and how to be sure an idea is marketable. We’ll also learn how to make a story sing instead of snore with showing vs. telling and fiction techniques. Special attention will be given to writing about tragedy. Come with your ideas; be open to new ones. And write! www.sherri-langton.com

4. The Courage to Write

_Judy Couchman_ has published 44 books, compilations, Bible studies, and contributions to Bible projects. Her brand focuses on “Living with Purpose and Passion,” promoting finding your purpose, spiritual transformation, and making a difference in the world. For 20 years she has worked as a full-time freelance writer, speaker, and writing coach. In recent years she’s spoken to groups or taught English as a foreign language in Belgium, Bulgaria, Canada, Germany, Hungary, Lithuania, Poland, and Switzerland.

Do you want to _write but need courage to start_? In these sessions, you’ll build a solid foundation for your writing ministry. We’ll focus on Identify Your Purpose, Face Your Fears, Claim Your Writing Identity, Develop Your Plan, and Understand Your Responsibilities. Learn from an author who felt just as scared as you when she started! Now she’s traditionally published 44 works. So can you! www.judithcouchman.com

5. Writing that Changes Lives

_Bill Watkins_ is a strategic partner to businesses, best-selling authors, global nonprofits, and publishers. He loves coaching start-ups and aspiring messengers. He is a brand manager and marketing creative, a book developer, editor, ghostwriter, and literary agent. Mike helps turn ideas into reality. He and his wife live in the mountains of Colorado with their pet moose.

Don’t just write! The time to plan marketing is before you release. And your writing should be both inspired and intentional. Mike will explore a market-driven approach to creating a nonfiction book, from premise to press release. Topics include: 1) Outlining, Writing, Editing, and Testing. Begin with the end in mind, and be flexible about how the journey unfolds! Mike will discuss the process and how a book proposal can elevate your writing. 2) Platform, PR, and Media Placement. How to receive local and national media attention. 3) How to Create and Execute a Book Marketing Plan. Publishing is a business. Your book is a product. From pre-writing to launch week, marketing considerations can help you craft a better nonfiction book. Mike will discuss real-world examples from his clients, including email, social media, and launch teams. www.MikeLoomis.CO

6. Reaching Women thru Writing & More

_Linda Evans Shepherd_ is both an author and a small business owner. She and her husband own Breadbox Creative, a web design and online marketing company. Eryn’s passion is to combine these areas of her life and work to help others market their message. Her clients, including email, social media, and launch teams.

Linda is a nationally known Christian speaker and an award-winning, best-selling author of over 30 books. She is the founder of Right to the Heart Ministries, which publishes the free online magazine _Leading Hearts_. She also founded and directs AWSA, the Advanced Writers and Speakers Association, which encourages and trains 400 Christian women authors. Linda is known as the Prayer Author and Speaker.

Do you want to _reach women_ through writing, speaking, the Internet, and more? Linda will talk about how to formulate a plan to build your ministry to meet the needs of today’s women. She will also share tips on how to use different platforms from the podium, to written word, to Web publications, and to Internet video to share your message of hope. How to Start a Critique Group & Critiquing (Wednesday)
Strategic & Tactical Prayer (Thursday)
Write His Answer to Issues (Thursday)
Square Peg Society (Wednesday, Thursday, Friday)

We act, think, and write differently from the rest of the world and are unashamed of being called “weird.” Come learn how to see things the way God sees things and how to apply His worldview to your writing.

FOUR free 15-minute appointments for those who come all three days!
Bonus FIFTH appointment for the first 75 who register.
You will receive an appointment request form when you register.

Paid Critiques - Get the extra help you need with your manuscript.
Visit www.writehisanswer.com/Colorado to check availability and generics. Reserve a space when you register. To allow time for your critic to review your manuscript pre-conference in preparation for meeting with you at the conference for 30 minutes, email your manuscript(s) by April 30.

“If it weren’t for what I’ve learned at CCWC, I would not be the author of over 30 books today.” - Linda Evans Shepherd
