Colorado Christian Writers Conference

KAYLA & KIM WOODHOUSE

A one-day workshop geared to teens and young adults (ages 11-20) filled with actual writing & editing time. Apply what you've learned and find how to make it even better.

DARCIE GUDGER

- ◆ Writing Fundamentals: Do you know—and can you fix—the common mistakes in creative writing?
- ◆ Character: The characters' journeys, Arcs, GMC, and flaws
- ◆ Setting: How to suck your readers into your “world”
- ◆ Plot: Elements, Structure, and Synopses
- ◆ What makes a great manuscript?

Requirements: Watch the Lord of the Rings trilogy (or read the books, or have a basic understanding of the premise, setting, plot, and characters). Illustrations will be used throughout the day based on LOTR. Bring laptop or notebook and pens/pencils—there will be a LOT of worksheets and actual writing assignments.

Optional: Submit a one page (Times New Roman 12 pt, double-spaced) sample of your work to be edited (for free), evaluated, and used as an illustration in class. Deadline: two weeks prior to the conference.
