Marketing Your Book: The Essential Ingredient

Preparing Your Manuscript

"Books do not sell themselves; people sell books." —Dan Poynter

Marketing Your Book

Truth: Selling Books is Hard Work

- The reading rate in America has remained steady since 2012. Pew Research Center reports that about 73% of Americans read a book each year.
- The number of books published in the United States has grown exponentially since 2010. The number of self-published titles has grown from 133,036 published in 2010 to 727,125 published in 2015.

Marketing Your Book

Most Books Are Purchased Online:

- 69% of all books are purchased online.
- Only 31% of books are bought in brick-and-mortar stores.
- Only 17% of Christian products are purchased through Christian brick-and-mortar stores.

- The competition for readers' attention and time is stiff!
- Over 90% of self-published books sell less than 100 copies.
- According to Nielson, the average nonfiction book sells 250 copies in its first year of print and 3,000 copies over its lifetime.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
Trapped in the US Embassy in Kuwait!
Castle Rock, CO / March 28, 2017— Have you encountered a situation where God seems to have deserted you? Do you wonder where God is in your troubled times? Jim and Shirley Carroll share their story of being trapped by the invading Iraqi army while in Kuwait in their new book, Faith in Crisis—How God Shows Up When You Need Him Most.

Jim and Shirley Carroll were living in Kuwait when Jim was trapped in the US Embassy in Kuwait by the invading Iraqi army. Shirley was home on leave with their seven children and no money. Find out how God entered these circumstances. Learn how Jim and Shirley, with the Lord's help, battled depression and discouragement. Faith in Crisis will lift your spirits as you see how God interacted with the couple. And learn how God can relate to you in your condition.

“This exciting account of captivity in the Middle East will draw you in, and you will not be able to put it down. This book's refreshing honesty about feelings of fear, depression, hopelessness, and the challenges of trusting God in uncertainty will boost your faith,” says Laurie Myers, author of The Shepherd's Song, The Lord is Their Shepherd, and Be Strong in the Lord.

About the Authors:

Jim is a medical school professor at Augusta University, and Shirley is a homemaker. They have eight children and fourteen grandchildren. When the Iraqis invaded Kuwait in August 1990, Jim and Shirley were tent-making missionaries in the little Gulf coast country. After much urging from friends and family, they finally summoned the courage to write about their experiences. They are active in their local First Presbyterian Church. Their website is http://www.jimandshirleyonline.com.

Share Your Content through Articles
Marketing Your Book

Magazines and journals are always looking for content.

- Excerpts from your book.
- Thematic articles.
- Resource: Christian Writers Market Guide

Email is alive and well.

- 91% of all U.S. consumers still use email daily.
- Every hour 122,500,453,020 emails are sent worldwide.
- Email is 40 times better at acquiring new customers than Facebook or Twitter.
- In fact, emails prompt purchases at a rate of at least three times of social media.
- 66% of consumers have made a purchase online as a result of an email marketing message.

Building an email list takes some time.

- Experts say that it takes at least six months using multiple techniques to acquire a solid list of email contacts.
- Studies show that email lists degrade about 24% a year, meaning that you lose about one-fourth of your email list each year to unsubscribes and closed accounts.

Three techniques to build an email list.

1. Host a “Subscribe” button on your website.
   - This button encourages your website visitors to subscribe to your “free” email newsletter or your blog.
   - Note: Many companies are no longer using the term “newsletter” to attract subscribers, rather the trend is now to offer “weekly tips” or “advice on (your topic)”.

Share Your Content through Email Newsletters
2. Offer a Freebie.
   - Offer your existing and potential customers a free product in exchange for an email.
     - A short story
     - A list related to the topic in your book (i.e. "10 Effective Parenting Tips")
     - An ebook (especially if you have a series or a novella that is a prequel to a story)
     - Resource: BookFunnel.com

3. Host a Giveaway.
   - Host a giveaway where you offer not just a copy of your book for free, but include a gift card with it.
   - Potential winners give you their name and email in exchange for the chance to win.
   - Theme the gift card to the book.
     - Hobby Store, Sports Store, etc.
     - Coffee shop or Chocolate store.
     - Be creative.

Conducting email marketing campaigns:
   - Don’t send emails more than once a week.
   - Offer some content, not just products or services.
   - Offer discounts or coupons regularly.
   - Include a clear call-to-action.
   - Use a bulk email service.

     - www.mailchimp.com
     - www.verticalresponse.com

Share Your Content through Social Media

Social Media Requires content regularly.
   - How often should you post?
     - Facebook: one to two posts per day
     - Twitter: up to 15 tweets per day
     - Pinterest: up to 11 pins per day
     - LinkedIn: no more than once per day
     - Google+: up to twice per day
     - Instagram: one to two posts per day

What types of things should you post?
   - Repurposed Content
     - Quotes from Your Book
     - Tidbits of Wisdom from Your Book
   - Thematic Articles
     - Share from your Own Blog or Blogs You Follow
     - Trending News Related to Your Topic
Marketing Your Book

Posting Tips:

- Keep information to bite-sized chunks with links to where people can get more information.
- Social media posts need visuals.
  - Visual content is more than 40X more likely to get shared on social media than other types of content.
    - Tweets with images get 150% more retweets.
    - Facebook posts with images account for 87% of total interactions.

Marketing Your Book

More Posting Tips:

- Social is not about selling. It's about forming relationships with consumers and gaining their trust by providing information that enriches their lives.
- Good rule of thumb for social media posting:
  - 40%—content from your brand / books.
  - 50%—curated content. Support others in your social community by sharing their content.
  - 10%—promotional.

2. Secure Media Appearances

- Radio is a Great Way to Reach People:
  - 57% of Americans 12 years of age or older have listened to online radio in the past month.
  - 91% of Americans ages 12 and older listen to traditional radio each week.
